

Reading at home

To help with furthering learning at home there are some options to consider.

- Also consider that you can borrow audio books from Wodonga, Albury Library Museums and the State Library websites with the use of your library card – You can do this online.
- If you have an Amazon Prime account you might like to investigate whether you are eligible for audio books.
- If you have a Spotify account you might like to investigate whether you are eligible for audio books and podcasts.
- You can look into Podcasts.
- You might also like to subscribe to Vooks, Audible
- Also investigate Project Gutenberg <https://www.gutenberg.org/> for free ebooks.
- You can find free versions of most of the classics e.g Pride and Prejudice online – both ebook and audio e.g. <http://www.loyalbooks.com/>

Below are some links to books that students might enjoy listening to through Youtube.
